

What's in our water?

Does it matter?

Don't let fish
become the next
"Canary in the coal mine".

Come join in the conversation about contaminants of emerging concern that are showing up in our waters — and learn some simple steps that we can do to reduce them.

- ◆ Kathy Lee, Deputy Program Coordinator, Toxic Substances Hydrology Program, US Geological Survey, Grand Rapids—
"Contaminants in our water and importance of science in making decisions"
- ◆ Al Innes, Safer Product Chemistry Coordinator, MN Pollution Control Agency, St. Paul—"Initiatives to reduce water pollution"
- ◆ Julie Kennedy, General Manager, Grand Rapids Public Utilities —
"Keeping Grand Rapids water clean"

May 4, 2017—6:00– 8:00 p.m.

Refreshments from 5:30-6:00

Davies Hall Chucker Auditorium

Itasca Community College

Hwy 169 East, Grand Rapids, MN

Sponsors: Wes Libbey Northern Lakes Izaak Walton League, Itasca Water Legacy Partnership, Earth Circle, Free Range Food Co-op, ICC Natural Resource Club and Agencies listed above.